Earning on business travel

With the AAdvantage Business™ program, your business earns AAdvantage® miles on eligible travel booked anywhere with American. These miles can be used across your company for flights, upgrades, hotels and beyond.

Travelers can also earn additional Loyalty Points toward AAdvantage® status on eligible AAdvantage Business™ travel, while still earning miles and Loyalty Points as AAdvantage® members.

If you're a Citi® / AAdvantage Business™ World Elite Mastercard® cardmember, business travel is even more rewarding. You can earn even more miles for your business and Loyalty Points for yourself when you use your card for purchases.¹

¹ For accounts applied for on or after October 16, 2023 or that received a change in terms notice concerning the AAdvantage Business™ program changes in the November 2023 billing statement. Review the Citi® / AAdvantage Business™ World Elite Mastercard® terms and conditions for additional details on earning with your card.

² One eligible AAdvantage® mile earns one Loyalty Point. Basic Economy tickets will earn miles at a rate of 2 miles per dollar. AAdvantage® status members receive additional miles based on AAdvantage® status on top of base miles earned on eligible flights. Does not include taxes and fees.

³ Eligible flights may include flights purchased through American-owned channels or purchased on American with an accredited agency or online booking tool.
